
Search for Success Throughout the Labyrinth of The Great Gaming House

The elevator opens and you're greeted by the Deceptionist. She directs you into the Image Pool to view an array of Wilkes Bashford styles. You pick one . . . say the Harvard look . . . and are escorted down the ivy halls to the Bar Exam. Can you mix drinks? Good, here's your diploma.

So now it's time to get married. Choose your spouse while sipping champagne and savoring hors d'oeuvres. Then off to the travel agent to plan your honeymoon. Aspen? Hawaii? Europe? Do you speak a foreign language? You could take a sea cruise to Tahiti or maybe return to the Image Pool and try another path. What would you like to do?

The Great Gaming House is full of possibilities: become President and see the War Room; gamble in Vegas and go to jail; play golf too often and get a divorce; or meet God or Michaelangelo.

Catered delicacies and fine drink, performers and bands, silent auction, games of skill and chance . . . all to be discovered in the labyrinth of The Great Gaming House.
